

For a Healthier Tomorrow.....

National policy and guidance

- Ensuring free health service for all
- Encouraging participation of private sector in health sector
- Uplifting public investments for construction and renovation of hospitals
- Paying much attention on preventing hospitals through delivering improved services
- Providing special facilities for elderly and disable communities in providing public health services
- Promoting public, private and community approach

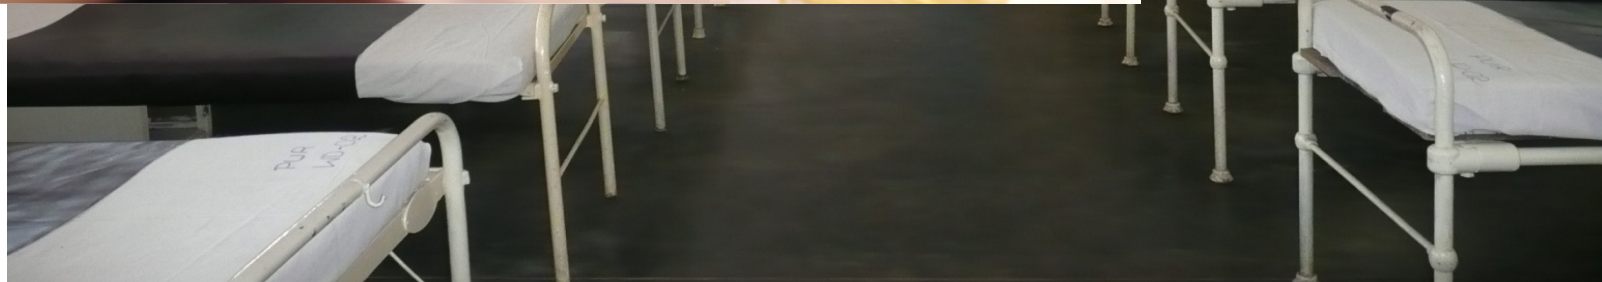

Provincial health vision

“to bring forth a healthy community to make better economic, social and spiritual development

Objectives

- Making a better coordination between prophylactic, curative and health development activities operated in Western Province and take the optimal productivity of health services being operated in the province
- Improving staff, equipment and services required to fulfill all hospitals of the province with curative services
- Operating basic activities of prophylactic sector such as child and infant health activities, maternal health activities, professional and environmental health activities, dieting, sanitary facilities etc. in a regular and planned manner in the province
- Formulating health development plans
- Improving quality of curative and prophylactic services and making projects for assessment

```
ERROR: undefined
OFFENDING COMMAND: p
STACK:
```